Message of Condolences for Vuyo Mbuli's Family

On behalf of the African Monitor Board of Trustees and staff, we join with so many millions who knew Vuyo Mbuli to offer our deepest sympathy on his passing. I extend our most heartfelt condolences to his family, friends and colleagues at the SABC. Although it is little consolation at this sad time, it should be of some satisfaction to know that in his passing we can celebrate a genuine productive and well-lived life.

In the midst of mourning his death, let's equally celebrate his tremendous legacy and remember his contribution to give ordinary citizens the opportunity and space to express themselves on different issues of relevance to South Africa's Society.

His passing will not only leave a void in our lives, but in the hearts of everyone who knew him. Mbuli's amazing and always inspiring voice every morning will always remain deep within our hearts.

May you find peace and comfort in knowing that his loss is felt by all who knew and loved him.

In Sympathy,

Archbishop Njongo Ndungane
